

CURRICULUM VITAE

Barbara De Donno

Full Professor of Private Comparative Law at the LUISS “Guido Carli” Department of Law – Rome since 2006.

Academic Director of the LUISS LL.M. on “Business and Company Law: European and International Perspectives – B&C Law” (since 2012) and of the following Executive courses: LUISS Summer School on “European and Comparative Company Law: Capital Market” and “B&C Tech Law. European and International Perspectives”. Member of the Board of the LUISS School of Law as LL.M. Programs Coordinator.

Supreme Court of Cassation Lawyer (Attorney at the Rome Bar – Special University Teachers’ Roll).

Member of the Board of Editors of the International Business Law Review – Diritto del Commercio internazionale (Giuffrè) and of the Annuario di Diritto Comparato e di Studi Legislativi (ESI). Member of the Scientific Board of the review Teoria e Prassi del Diritto (ESC). Editor del CECL (Center for European Company Law) – bookseries on European Company Law (Kluwer Law International).

Expert appointed by the European Commission – Research Executive Agency (REA).

Co-leader (with Livia Ventura) of the Research project Human-Centred Business Model (for the fifth pillar of six on corporate and public procurement), coordinated by OECD and World Bank.

Membre associé dell’Académie Internationale de Droit Comparé and member of the Italian Association for Comparative Law.

Member of the Scientific Committee of the “ESG European Institute” Association.

Member of the LUISS Alumni Association (since 2011 Member of the Executive Board).

Member of the National Committee for the Environmental Assessment EIA –SEA from 2008 to 2020.

Member of the Performance Assessment Independent Committee for INAF – National Institute for Astrophysics from 2016 to 2019.

Member (appointed by the Parliament) of the National Committee on Tax Judiciary from 2014 to 2018.

Rapporteur of national and international conferences and lecturer in Master’s degree courses.

Author of publications on comparative and European business law.